To be ſold at PUBLIC VENDUE, At the Merchant's Coffee-Houſe, On Tueſday the Fifth Day of July next;

ONE HALF (being all that Part owned by Mary Behenna) of BIG BEARN (commonly called BEHENNA's) ISLAND, at Hell-gate, containing One Hundred Acres of rich arable, and paſture land, about twenty acres of excellent freſh, with a few acres of ſalt meadow, and upwards of twenty acres of good wood land, in the whole one hundred and fifty acres, all in good fence, and well watered, even in the drieſt time, a fine large orchard, with a large number of the very beſt grafted fruit trees, and commands a beautiful proſpect of the ſound, &c. There is on it a very neat and genteel dwelling houſe, fronting the water, with a long piazza, from whence there is an agreeable view down the eaſt river, near as far as New-York, and of all the ſhips, boats, &c. which paſs and repaſs from thence through Hell-gate. It has three rooms on a floor, a fire place in each, a dairy room and ſtore room, with a Negro houſe adjoining; contiguous to the houſe is a large garden, elegantly laid out and well known for its beauty, affording a variety of the choiceſt fruits, berries of every kind, Engliſh walnuts, aſparagus, &c. in great plenty. The ſaid part of the iſland has on it ſome good ſtone quarries, from which may be had a ſufficient quantity of ſtones for fencing the lands, and the ground is ſown with the uſual quantity of grain, as wheat, Indian corn, &c. At a ſmall diſtance from the dwelling houſe, there is a very convenient ſtill-houſe, ſtanding near the water, at a good landing, with a good ſtill, (little or nothing worſe than new) containing eight hundred gallons, a worm tub, ciſterns, pumps, and all utenſils neceſſary for a diſtillery.

Any perſon inclining to buy the ſame at private ſale, before the above date, may apply to David Jones, in new Dutch church-ſtreet, or to Mary Behenna on the premiſes, who will ſhew the ſame, and give an indiſputable title.

N. B. Good ſecurity will be taken for a very conſiderable part of the purchaſe money. New-York, June 1, 1768. 26 30

THIS is to give notice, to all the creditors of Meſſrs. Joſeph Forman, jun. and Stephen Forman, that they have made over to us the ſubſcribers, in truſt for their creditors, all their eſtate, both real and perſonal whatſoever; by an aſſignment dated 23d. of April, 1768, therefore we now give notice to all perſons indebted to ſaid company, or otherways, that they make ſpeedy payment to us; and no other perſon but by our order, particularly Mr. Thomas Thomas, or any perſon concern'd for the company of Meſſrs. Griffiths and Thomas, and that the power Joſeph Forman, ſenr. gave Thomas Thomas, is made void by the aſſignment.

26, 29. Robert Ray, John Taylor.

THE Subſcriber begs Leave to take this Method of informing the Public, That he ſhall leave this Place in twenty Days at fartheſt:—That thoſe who are diſpoſed to apply to him may not be diſappointed.

Until he leaves this City, he continues at Mr. John Watſon's, in the Houſe wherein Capt. Randal lately liv'd, near White-Hall Slip, and will wait on them on receiving their Commands ——He prevents Teeth from growing rotten, keeps ſuch as are decay'd a long Time from becoming worſe; alſo cures the Scurvy in the Gums, be it ever ſo bad, firſt cleanſes and Scales the Teeth from that corroſive tartarous gritty Subſtance, which hinders the Gums from growing, infects the Breath, and is one of the principal Cauſes of the Scurvy, (and if not timely prevented) eats away the Gums; ſo that many People's Teeth fall out freſh. He fills up with Lead or Gold, thoſe that are hollow, (ſo as to render them uſeful) and prevent the Air getting into them, which aggravates the Pain. He makes artificial Teeth, with an Enamel on the out Side, and fixes them with pure Gold, ſo that they will remain faſt for many Years, and may eat, drink and ſleep, with them in their Mouths as natural ones, from which they cannot be diſcovered by the ſharpeſt Eye. He diſplaces Teeth or Stumps, after the beſt and eaſieſt Method, be they ever ſo deep ſunk into the Socket of the Gums, He has given ſufficient Proof of his ſuperior Judgment in this Art, to the principal Nobility, Gentry, and others, of Great-Britain, France, Ireland, and other principal Places in Europe; alſo to upwards of Two Thouſand Perſons in the Town of Boſton.

☞ His Dentifrice, with proper Directions for preſerving the Teeth and Gums, is to be had at his Lodgings. Each pot is ſealed with his Coat of Arms, as in the Margin of the Directions, to prevent Fraud. 26 28

New-York, June 2d, 1768. JOHN BAKER.

LONDON, March 31.

MANY groundleſs and illiberal reflections having been thrown out againſt Mr. Wilkes, his Committee and friends, intimating their having given countenance to the unwarrantable riots and diſturbances that unfortunately happened upon the Middleſex election, it is thought neceſſary for their juſtification to acquaint the public with the ſteps taken by Mr. Wilkes's Committee to preſerve the public peace and tranquility.

Forty thouſand of the following hand-bills were diſtributed on Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, viz. "Mr. Wilkes earneſtly requeſts his friends, and entreats that all poſſible meaſures may be uſed to preſerve peace and good order through the whole of the approaching election for the county of Middleſex, to convince the world that Liberty is not joined to Licentiouſneſs."——And the ſame was printed in all the public papers.

The Committee provided and ſtationed 247 carriages, and 120,000 of the following hand-bills were printed, and diſtributed on Saturday, viz.

To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the county of Middleſex.

Coaches will be provided for the friends of John Wilkes, Eſq; to go to Brentford, on Monday morning at ſix o'clock, the 28th of March, 1768, at the following places, viz. The Mile-end aſſembly room; the Vine tavern, Ratcliffe-croſs; the King of Sweden, Wapping-dock; the Crown tavern, Leadenhall-ſtreet; the Devil tavern, Temple-bar; the Hercules Pillar, Hyde-park corner; at Mr. Aſhley's, Clerkenwell-green; the White Horſe, Whitecroſs-ſtreet; the Bell, Shoreditch; the Three Tuns, Spitalfields; Mr. Burget's, at Poplar; the Angel, at Iſlington.

Barges will be alſo provided, by enquiring at the following places, the Vine tavern, Ratcliffe-croſs; and the King of Sweden's-head, Wapping-Dock.

N. B. The coaches are deſired to go by the way of Acton, and rendezvous at Hanwell heath, as that rout will have the leaſt obſtruction.——The Gentlemen Freeholders may be aſſured that Mr. Wilkes hath not joined any other candidate whatever.

At each of the above places two gentlemen attended at ſeven o'clock, on Monday morning, with the following inſtructions:——"That they ſend the coaches ſingly, ſo ſoon as they can be filled with freeholders, taking down their names, and that of the coachman, or Number. That a cockade and card, with LIBERTY and WILKES, be given to the freeholders, not to be uſed until that morning. That if any ſpare coaches remain upon the ſtands, they may be ſent where wanted: and when wanted to ſend to the other ſtands to know if any can be ſpared."

That in caſe any extra coaches ſhould be wanted, to hire ſuch as could be procured; giving a certificate of the agreement, to be directed to the Committee at the King's-Arms, Cornhill, for the payment. That the coaches do not go by St, James's, to prevent the leaſt indecency that might be offered by the indiſcretion of thoſe who might be actuated by zeal without prudence.

In conſequence of thoſe regulations, the utmoſt order was obſerved on the Acton road, the way Mr. Wilkes's friends went; therefore the riot and diſturbance that happened may be preſumed to have aroſe from the following cauſes.

Mr. Wilkes went privately to Brentford on Sunday, and was on the Huſtings on Monday at eight o'clock; the Sheriffs appeared at nine o'clock, but the two other candidates did not appear till after one. This delay occaſioned great impatience in the freholders, from ten o'clock, until opening the poll, but no ill conſequence enſued, through the repeated ſolicitations of Mr. Wilkes, to wait with patience until the appearance of all the candidates.

In Piccadilly, and other places, two blue ſilk ſtandards were erected and carried before certain candidates, with the following inſcription in large gold letters, viz. No BLASPHEMER; No FRENCH RENEGADO; which raiſed an unhappy reſentment in the populace. Thoſe banners were carried to Brentford, and diſplayed cloſe by the Huſtings, for some time during the poll, yet was there no obſtruction or damage done to the ſupporters or abettors of this indiſcretion.

It is therefore ſubmmitted to the public, whether Mr. Wilkes's committee have not exerted their utmoſt endeavours to preſerve good order and regularity; and who were the aggreſſors or authors of the unhappy diſturbances that enſued, which yet were much leſs than might have been expected from the indiſcreet occaſion given to the populace.

N. B. Tueſday night ſeveral of Mr. Wilkes's committee patroled the city and the Weſt end of the town, to preſerve peace and good order; their endeavours proved efficacious.

Tueſday night, about half an hour after nine o'clock, Mr. Thomas Pearce, of Fiſhmonger-alley, Fenchurch ſtreet, overtook near the Manſion-houſe, a tall, genteel perſon, with a white coat, that had the appearance of a gentlemen, who had under his arm a ſilver hilted hanger, half drawn out of the ſcabbard, with his hand upon the handle; as alſo a large ſtick He followed him until he came to the paſſage of the King's-arms tavern, Cornhill, when he ſheathed his hanger, and went to the bar of the ſaid tavern, where he enquired for Mr. Wilkes of the waiter; who anſwered, that he was gone to Bath. He ſeemed much diſappointed, and aſked for Mr. Wilkes's friends. Mr. Pearce apprehending he came upon a wicked deſign, told him that all his friends were gone; when Mr. Pearce acquainted Mr. Wilkes's committee up ſtairs with the ſame. It is therefore thought neceſſary to acquaint ſuch who are miſguided by falſe principles on Mr Wilkes's outlawry, that any violence or injury to his perſon is equally criminal as if againſt any man in the kingdom; and further, that was it otherwiſe, Mr. Wilkes being returned a member of parliament entitles him to every privilege, in the ſame manner as if he had actually taken his ſeat in the Houſe of Commons.

PARMA, February 20.

A Certain Writing in Form of a Bull, from Rome, has come to our Knowledge here; but as the Expreſſions and Maxims therein contained could not proceed from a Pontiff ſo holy, ſo enlightened, and ſagacious, as is the preſent reigning Pope, the Infant Duke hath ordered all his Subjects to believe that in Effect this Piece does not come from his Holineſs; enjoyning them, at the ſame Time, not to fail in reſpect towards him; and forbidding them to moleſt, on that Account, any of the Subjects of the Court of Rome.

Dreſden, Feb. 28. The Court of Saxony hath juſt renounced its pretenſions to the poſſeſſions of the late Count de Bruhl, and hath cauſed the ſequeſtration laid thereon to be taken off; ſo that the children of that Miniſter will be immediately reeſtabliſhed in the poſſeſſion of their patrimony.

LONDON,

March 14. It is reported, that all thoſe who ſhall take ſmall ſums of money, to give cert in greater ſums, in caſe Mr. Wilkes is choſen Member for the city, are liable to be diſfranchiſed.

March 18. From Madrid we learn, that the Spaniſh Miniſtry are going to exhibit a ſpecimen of frugality, by reducing a number of officers who were a burden to the State, and applying large ſums, which went under the name of perquiſites in thoſe offices, to the increaſe of their marine forces.

They write from Dunkirk, that ſeveral Britiſh artiſans had, within the laſt fortnight, arrived there to be employed in the ſeveral manufactures already there eſtabliſhed.

Friday laſt ſix Students belonging to Oxford were expelled the Univerſity, after a hearing of ſeveral hours for holding methodiſtical tenets.

March 21. We are now informed, that the true reaſon of not permitting any perſon to depart the frontiers and ports of France, without a paſsport under the King's own hand was, that the Viſcount de Choiſeul, who was confined in the Caſtle de Pierre enciſe, on the Rhone near Lyons, for a ſhocking Murder formerly related, committed while Ambaſſador at the Court of Naples, had found means to make his eſcape from thence, but being ſince retaken, and ſecured in another place, the above reſtraint has been removed.

March 29. Friday two butts of beer were given to the populace at Brentford, by the two old Members, which they ſoon emptied, drinking all the while to Wilkes and Liberty.

By the Act 33 Geo. II. chap. 20. every perſon who ſhall be elected a Member of the Houſe of Commons, ſhall, before he preſumes to vote in that Houſe, or ſit there during any debate, after their ſpeaker is choſen, deliver in to the Clerk of the ſaid Houſe at the table in the middle of the Houſe, and whilſt the Houſe is there duly ſitting, &c. an account ſigned by ſuch Member, containing the names of the pariſhes, townſhips, or precincts, and of the counties in which the lands or hereditaments lie, whereby he makes out his qualification, declaring the ſame to be of the annual value of 600l. above reprizes, if a Knight of the Shire; and of the annual value of 300l. above reprizes, if a Citizen, Burgeſs, or Baron of the Cinque Ports; and ſhall, at the ſame time take and ſubſcribe the following oath, viz.—"I, A. B. do ſwear, that I truly and bona fide have ſuch an eſtate in law or equity, and of ſuch value, to and for my own uſe and benefit, of, or in lands, tenements, or hereditaments, over and above what will ſatisfy and clear all incumbrances that may affect the ſame, as doth qualify me to be elected and returned to ſerve as a Member for the place I am returned for, according to the tenor and true meaning of the Acts of Parliament in that behalf; and that ſuch lands, tenements, or hereditaments, do lie as deſcribed in the paper, or account ſigned by me, and delivered to the Clerks of the Houſe of Commons. So help me God!"

We are informed, that there have been fewer of the Iriſh Nobility and Gentry in London this winter, than has been known for many years before.

We hear from Ireland, that the Hon. Tho. Barnewell, now the eldeſt ſon of Lord Trimelſtown, in that kingdom, has lately conformed to the Proteſtant Religion.

The following was this morning poſted up at the Sun Fire Office in Cornhill.

BRITANNIA to JOHN WILKES, Eſq;

DROOP not, my Son, thy Laurels cannot fade,
Tho' venal Citizens deny thee Aid.
On Me, on Me, their barb'rous Rage they turn,
My Right they trample, and my Altars ſpurn,
I too muſt fall!—Too well, alas! I ſee
Each Shaft that wounds thy Breaſt is aim'd at Me.
Droop not, my Son, nor aſk a nobler Fate
Than bravely falling with a falling State.
Thou did'ſt not fail, till Worth, till Honour fled;
Thou did'ſt not fail, till Freedom's Self was dead.

March 29. Lord R———m we hear has loſt a thouſand guineas to fifty, by betting againſt Mr. Wilkes

On Monday night laſt the houſe of Mr. Richard Wilkes, the ſign of Robin Hood, near Great Turnſtile, Holborn, was opened at the expence of forty-five reſpectable neighbours, who all met there in the evening, and drank forty-five bottles of wine, and when the news arrived in town of Mr. Wilkes having a conſiderable majority of the other two candidates, forty five candles were immediately lighted up in the windows, forty five gallons of beer were given to the populace, and the evening was concluded with that order becoming ſo reſpectable a company.

Letters from Conſtantinople, dated February 15, ſay, "The Grand Seignor has been ſome few days paſt greatly indiſpoſed inſomuch that laſt Friday he was not at the moſque, and it is ſince reported that he is dead."

March 30. We hear that Alderman Trecothick has, ſince his election, generouſly declared that the loſs incurred on the 4000 barrels of flour, imported from Pennſylvania and New-York by the Committee of North American Merchants, in aid and relief of the poor, ſhall be entirely at his own expence.

April 2. On Tueſday night the mob broke the windows of his Grace the Duke of Argyle's houſe in Soho Square and alſo the windows of his ſon, the Marquis of Lorn's houſe in Argyle buildings, where they did conſiderable damage, every window belonging to the Earl of Bute's houſe in South Audley-ſtreet, were ſo broke that ſcarce a pane of glaſs was left whole.

April 4. Among the many houſes of perſons of diſtinction at the weſt end of the town that were illuminated on Tueſday night, on account of Mr. Wilkes being elected Knight of the ſhire for the county of Middleſex, were thoſe of their Royal Highneſſes the Dukes of Gloceſter and Cumberland.

The expences of the election for N. Hampton, amount to 60,000l. at leaſt, to both parties.

Mr. Wilkes during his exile, enjoyed a penſion of 1200l. per annum, by a private ſubſcription of a few friends, among whom are ſeveral Right Honourables of the preſent miniſtry.

We hear that an offer was made to Mr. Wilkes by his friends, that if he choſe any one to join candidate with him, they would hold for them jointly; on which Mr. Wilkes replied, that he was infinitely obliged to them for the offer, but as the public had intereſted itſelf ſo much in his favour, he thought himſelf ſufficiently honoured if they choſe him, without preſuming to dictate their choice of any one elſe, and very politely declined the offer.

It is ſaid the damage done to Lord Bute's houſe, by the mob on Monday night laſt, cannot be repaired for leſs than 5000l. a great deal of rich furniture having been broke to pieces.

A genuine letter from Ayleſbury in Buckinghamſhire, to a gentlemen in London, dated March 30th, 1768.

"This day about noon we received the news of Mr. Wilkes's election for the county of Middleſex, by a great majority. The inexpreſſible joy that appeared among the inhabitants in general is not to be conceived; the bells were immediately ſet a ringing, and continued upwards of twelve hours, and every inhabitant of the town, appeared with a blue cockade in his hat, interwoven with the words Wilkes, and Liberty, and underneath, The worthy freeholders of the county of Middleſex, who voted for him. The windows in every houſe of the town were illuminated, and ſeveral of the principal inhabitants, provided hogſheads of beer at their own expence, at different parts of the town, for the populace. Bonfires were immediately made, and the evening concluded with the greateſt joy and decorum imaginable.—The next morning the populace carried a blue flag round the town, whereon was painted the portrait of Mr. Wilkes, and underneath, Wilkes and Liberty, accompanied by a great number of the principal inhabitants, who, as ſoon as the parade ended, fixed it on the Town Hall, there to remain to the lateſt poſterity.

CHARLES-TOWN, South-Carolina, May 27.

May 31. "From Waxaws, about twelve Miles from the Catawba Settlement, we have the following Account. "On Sunday May 1ſt, the Catawba Indians had Notice that a Party of the Shawaneſe who have been long their Enemies, had been ſeen near their Town, on which they immediately raiſed a Party to go out againſt the Enemy, with whom they came up next Morning, and found them to be ſeven in Number, and all aſleep; the Catawbas immediately fired and killed three on the Spot, and took three Priſoners; one eſcaped wounded, but has been ſince found dead in the Woods. ——Among the Priſoners is the Indian who killed King Haggler; they were all delivered to the Families who have had their Relations killed by the Shawaneſe, who put them to Death in the inhuman barbarous Manner, common to the Indian Nations. One of the Priſoners was very young, and pleaded hard for his Life, begging them to conſider his tender Age, aſſuring them he was brought by his Brother againſt his own Inclinations, and that he had never killed or hurt any Body, but nothing could prevail"

Laſt Thurſday Mr Baker one of our Pilots, ſpoke with a Sloop paſſing by this Bar, from Boſton for Georgia 14 Days out, all well on board.

Saturday laſt the Brig Prince of Wales, Capt. Maſon, arrived here in ſix Days from Philadelphia, in whom came ſeveral Paſſengers.

The Brig Philadelphia-Packet, Capt. Clifford, ſails this Day for London, in his Way will touch at New-York, in order to land Ralph Izard, Eſq; and Lady, &c.

Charles-Town, May 13. "Letters from the Cherokee country, inform us of the death of KITTAGUSTA, the great Sachem or Prince of Choté and of the whole nation, brother of Oueconnoſeta or the Great Warriour, much and ſincerely lamented by all his countrymen. The Upper Cherokee Towns are greatly harraſſed by ſeveral parties of Indians, from the Ohio and Miſſiſippi, who kill every body they meet with, whether White men or Indians: On the 17th of laſt month, two white men, looking for their horſes, were killed and ſcalped, and another very much wounded. Some Renegade Creeks, diſowned by their own nation, have lately been giving out inflammatory ſpeeches among the Cherokees. The ſame letters add, that the people of the Lower Towns expreſs the higheſt ſatisfaction with the King's order, for running the boundary lines between their hunting grounds and Virginia, which had been communicated to them by Mr. Stuart Superintendant of the Southern diſtrict."

"His Excellency Governor Wright has appointed George Galphin, Edward Barnard, and George Mackintoſh, Eſqrs. Commiſſioners for running the boundary line between that province and the Creek Indians. Mr. Commiſſary Mackintoſh for his honour the Superintendant, and the Indian deputies are on their way from the Creek nation to Mr. Galphin's, in order to begin that long expected and important buſineſs. BOSTON, June 2.

Capt. Skimmer left Falmouth the 7th of April and informs, That the Packet was to ſail from thence for New-York in a Fortnight after him.

We hear that the Congregational Miniſters of this Province, at their Meeting laſt Week, did unitedly preſent their Thanks to the Rev. Dr. Chauncey, of this Town, for his juſt and ſeaſonable Remarks on the Biſhop of Landaff's Sermon, preached before the Society for propagating the Goſpel: as alſo for his learned and judicious Reply to Dr. Chandler's Appeal to the Public, in favour of an American Epiſcopate.

We hear the Univerſity of Edinburgh have conferred a Doctorate of Divinity on the Rev. Mr. Joſeph Bellamy, of Bethlehem in Woodbury.

Yeſterday Morning a Negro Fellow belonging to Sherburne, applied to a Doctor in this Town for ſome Ratſbane; but being ſuſpected to have a bad Deſign, he was cloſely interrogated, and confeſſed his Intention was to poiſon one Mr Bullard of Sherburne, in revenge for ſtriking him: He was carried before a Magiſtrate, when he again declared his Deſign; whereupon he was committed to Bridewell: The Fellow pretends to be a free Man.

Tueſday Morning laſt, ſeven Companies of the 18th or Royal Iriſh Regiment, marched from hence for Fort Pitt.

On the ſame Day in the Evening his Excellency Lord Charles Greville Montague, Governor of South-Carolina, and his Lady, arrived here from Charles-Town, after ten Days Paſſage, in his Majeſty's Sloop of War the Fowey, Capt. Robinſon.

Friday laſt arrived here the Brig Elizabeth, Capt. Faris, in four Weeks from Savanna la Mar, in Jamaica.—In Lat. 22: 26, he ſpoke a Brig Capt. Dennis, from the Bay of Honduras for New-York, out 14 Days.

By Mr. Hayfield Conyngham, who arrived in Town laſt Evening, we are informed, that the Ship Sally, Capt. Rankin, from Newry, in 7 Weeks, is aſhore at Egg-Harbour.

NEW-YORK, MAY 9.

Saturday laſt the 4th Inſt. being the Anniverſary of his Majeſty's Birth Day, when he enter'd the 31ſt Year of his Age, His Excellency General GAGE, (the Governor being abſent, on his Tour to Albany, &c.) the Gentlemen of the Council, the Mayor, Corporation, and other Gentlemen of the City and Army, aſſembled at the Fort, where his Majeſty's and other Loyal Healths were drank, under a Diſcharge of Twenty-one Cannon from the Fort, which were anſwered by three Volleys from the Detachment of the Train, and the 16th Regiment, drawn up on the Battery, where they made a handſome Appearance, and were reviewed by the General—at whoſe Houſe an elegant Entertainment was provided for the Gentlemen. In the Evening there were Illuminations as uſual. Thoſe at the General's Houſe and the Fort, were beautifully diſpoſed.

Philadelphia, May 26, 1768.

THE SUBSCRIBER begs leave to acquaint his friends and the public, that he has removed into that large and commodious Inn, ſituated in Third-ſtreet, (between Market and Arch-ſtreets) for ſome time known by the name of the BULL's HEAD, (but is now called the BUNCH of GRAPES) where he purpoſes to keep a genteel HOUSE of ENTERTAINMENT, for travellers and others, who may depend on the beſt fare and civileſt treatment, as it will be his conſtant endeavour to give the moſt perfect ſatisfaction to all who ſhall favour him with their cuſtom.

He has furniſhed his houſe with the beſt liquors, as well as every other requiſite ſuitable to his deſign; and has alſo prepared STABLES and SHEDS (which are as good as any in this province) for the reception of HORSES and CARRIAGES, which ſhall be taken the utmoſt care of.

His houſe is very well calculated for an Inn, and has the advantage of an elegant and ſpacious room for the accommodation of large companies, who may have occaſion to meet on buſineſs or recreation.

When it is conſidered that Third-ſtreet is becoming one of the grandeſt avenues into this city,—that the houſe ſtands in the neighbourhood of many principal merchants and capital ſtores,—and that it is alſo very near the market the propriety of a good Inn, in ſuch a place will undoubtedly be generally allowed,——he therefore hopes that his endeavours to ſerve and oblige, will (by the generoſity of the public) be attended with ſome benefit to himſelf.

27 40 JOSIAH F. DAVENPORT.

SUPPLEMENT to the NEW-YORK JOURNAL, OR GENERAL ADVERTISER.—NUMB. 1327.

[SATURDAY, JUNE 11, 1768.]

On Thurſday laſt arrived the Harriot, Packet Boat, Capt. Oake, in 6 Weeks from Falmouth, with the April Mail, which brings Papers to the 18th of that Month, containing the following Advices.——(On Thurſday laſt likewiſe, arrived the Ship Pool, Capt. Pyke; in 5 Weeks and three Days from Poole, but we cannot collect an Article of News by her.)

LISBON, Feb. 16.

THE Sieur Gueguen, Captain of the Nouvelle Union, belonging to Morlaix, in France, in ſailing from Breſt to Guadaloupe, whither he was tranſporting ſome of his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's troops, met with, on the 17th of laſt month, near Madeira, a French flute, named the Balance, at the very inſtant ſhe was wrecked a few leagues from that iſland, and took on board 227 men whom he carried into Madeira. This ſhip was returning from Madeira.

Parma, Feb 20. A certain writing, in form of a Bull from Rome, has come to our knowledge here; but as the expreſſions and maxims therein contained, could not proceed from a Pontiff ſo holy, ſo enlightened, and ſo ſagacious as is the preſent reigning Pope, the Infant Duke hath ordered all his ſubjects to believe, that in fact this piece does not come from his Holineſs; enjoining them, at the ſame time, not to fail in reſpect towards him; and forbidding them to moleſt, on that account, any of the ſubjects of the Court of Rome.

Madrid, Feb. 22. On Tueſday laſt a courier arrived here from Naples, with advice that the Pope had excommunicated the Regency of Parma.

Warſaw, Feb. 28. We are very impatient here to know the new Declarations which the Miniſters of foreign Courts are ſaid to be charged to make in a few Days. It is pretended that Prince Repnin, in particular, hath declared that he will not render public his laſt Orders, for very important Reaſons. It is alſo aſſured, that the Pruſſian Miniſter hath received ſome Diſpatches which he is not to open till a few Days hence in a full Seſſion. The other Miniſters have Orders not to ſign any Thing but the Affair of the Diſſidents, and not to interfere in any Manner in the Affairs of the State and the Finances.

Geneva, March 11. The Great and Leſſer Councils preſented this day to the General Council a Plan of Reconciliation, which was accepted by 1204 voices againſt 23. This event has given great pleaſure, as it opens a proſpect of tranquility ſo long wiſhed for in this city.

Paris, March 11. The Tribunal of the Univerſity regiſtered on Saturday laſt, with one Conſent, the Arret of Parliament concerning the Pope's Brief relative to the Duke of Parma.

Madrid, March 16. We have received advice from Majorca, that in January laſt a report prevailed in that iſland, that a ſtatue of the Holy Virgin, which ſtands over the door of one of the houſes from which the Jeſuits were expelled, had been obſerved to join her hands together, then to extend them again, and afterwards croſs them over the breaſt, ; which they pretend to interpret as manifeſt ſigns of grief, on account of the expulſion of the Jeſuits. This report gained credit among the populace to that degree, that they aſſembled together, and broke out in imprecations againſt the authors of the proſcription of that Society. The Governor and the Biſhop made uſe of every poſſible means to calm the tumult, which at length they effected by expoſing the ſtatue of the Virgin to the people, and convincing them that it was only ſtone, and conſequently incapable of motion. However, ſeveral perſons were ſent to priſon on account of the riot; and the Governor immediately ſent a particular account of it to Court.

Warſaw, March 17. The general rendezvous of the new confederation in Podolia, is at Bar. They have inliſted 5000 men, and declare they act for the defence of Religion and Liberty. An officer has been appointed to make a tour into thoſe parts, to obſerve the ſtate of the Confederacy.

Genoa, March 26. The government has given orders for fitting out three galleys and four ſmall feluccas, to protect our trade againſt the Corſicans, who have ſeveral privateers at ſea, and have taken ſeveral prizes.

Venice, March 30. We have juſt received advice from Rome, that 1800 Neapolitan troops have taken poſſeſſion of Benevento, which place, though ſituate in the kingdom of Naples, belongs to the Pope, and therefore this proceeding of the King of Naples occaſions various conjectures.

Paris, April 4. Laſt Thurſday night about eleven o'clock, a fire broke out at a Nunnery in the Rue des Poſtes. Seven young ladies were in bed in the chamber where the flames firſt appeared, which were ſo rapid that only two of the ladies could be got out, and they much hurt, the reſt periſhing in the fire.

Paris, April 8. It is aſſured, that the Ambaſſadors from France, Spain, and Naples, at Rome, have received orders to join in demanding of the Pope to withdraw his brief concerning the dutchy of Parma, and likewiſe a ſatisfaction for this inſult; and it is preſumed that his Holineſs is diſpoſed to come to an accommodation.

LONDON,

March 25. By the Canada Capt, Macleod, arrived a few Days ſince at Cowes, from Carolina, we learn, that Capt. Paterſon, of the Aurora, (lately loſt coming over the Bar of that Place) died in his Paſſage to England, on board the Canada. The Aurora, as we are informed, was the unfortunate Ship on board which, about two Years ago, a young Lady, Siſter to an eminent Merchant at Madeira, embarked in the Port of London for that Iſland; but through an unwarrantable and violent Attempt of the Captain during the Paſſage, on the Maid, and reſented by the Miſtreſs, and (as ſuppoſed) from Revenge, or Fear of Complaint, or of Conſequences, inſtead of landing them, and a conſiderable Freight conſigned to the above Merchant at Madeira, (as he ought and might) under falſe and frivolous Pretences, when in Sight of the Iſland, notwithſtanding the Tears and Intreaties of the Lady, and the Repreſentations of other Paſſengers, and of his own Mate, he ſailed away with them to Barbados; where they no ſooner arrived than the Lady underwent very conſiderable further Diſtreſs from the great Fire at that Place, and afterwards returned to England, from whence ſhe ſailed again to Madeira, ſuffering all the Time in this Tour of many thouſand Leagues at Sea (beſides an Abſence of twelve Months, and the moſt cruel and grievous Diſappointment) the moſt imminent Dangers, and very great Damages, of which ſome Account was not long ſince, inſerted in the London Papers. In the mean while Capt. Paterſon ſailed away with the above Goods to Carolina, and to Jamaica, (whereto he was not bound) and there converted to his own Uſe the ſaid Goods, to the great Damage, Vexation, and Diſappointment of the Proprietors and all Perſons concerned, and to his own ſad and melancholy End; for from this very ſtrange, and perhaps unparalleled Conduct, and after the Loſs of his ſaid Ship, returning unexpectedly home, on board the Canada, much diſordered, he was ſeized with a Fever, and died, as above, raving mad, leaving a moſt amiable and deſerving Woman his Wife, and ſeveral Children, in a deplorable Condition, to lament the fatal Effects of ſuch ſad Miſconduct.—This unhappy and fatal Story, but for the Warning it may afford to the Living, might have been buried with the Deceaſed, but Maſters of Veſſels may hence learn Caution againſt illegal, violent, and important Attempts on Female Paſſengers (the probable firſt Cauſe of this tragical Story and far-ſpread Diſtreſs) and Ladies of Character obliged to make diſtant Sea Voyages, to take, before Departure, proper Security for their Protection and ſafe landing; but principally, Merchants, and others, to ſurvey well Characters, as well as Bottoms, ſince if no Redreſs is had herein, ſuch Omiſſion may prove of great Detriment not only to private Property, but to Trade and Navigation in general.

April 5. It is ſaid, that a gentleman of great eminence in the law has given it as his opinion, that the outlawry againſt Mr. Wilkes is not legal.

It is ſaid that among the ſeveral flaws in Mr. Wilkes's outlary, one is, that he was not declared an outlaw in three different pariſhes in the county where he lived; and it is likewiſe ſaid, that the outlawry was not regiſtered in the proper office.

On Saturday died ſuddenly, Mr. Lewis, Carpenter, in Wild-ſtreet, Drury-lane, reckoned the ſtrongeſt man that ever lived in England, not excepting the late famous Mr. Topham.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, March 30.

"Here is a very extraordinary account of a Butcher in this town, who has been either dead or aſleep for theſe three weeks; there is no body knows which, for he ſtill keeps his colour freſh as when alive, and is rather warm than otherwiſe; the doctors have ordered him not to be buried yet, for he is not offenſive to the ſmell in the leaſt.

Letters from Geneva, dated March 11, ſay, "This day is rendered the moſt remarkable that ever happened in the hiſtory of the Republick, by the re-union of the orders of the State, and by that means preventing a civil war which there was reaſon to apprehend. This peace between the General Council and the Citizens is concluded upon terms very honourable to the latter, and to the general ſatisfaction of all parties."

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, March 4.

"The Hon. William-Henry Lyttleton, Eſq; Envoy-Extraordinary from the Court of Great-Britain, continues his conferences the Miniſtry, in order to accommodate the differences reſpecting the trade of the two nations. Several points are already ſettled, and it is expected that the reſt will be ſooner confirmed by a formal treaty.

"It's ſtrongly reported that the Dutch ſhips are returned without landing their preſents at Algier; and that the Dey has declared war againſt Holland. He has made great preparations by ſea; and one of his ſhips of 36 guns, which was ſent out on a cruiſe, was lately loſt off Bona."

A letter from Antwerp, dated March 28, ſays, "The dearneſs of proviſions, which prevails thro' out the greateſt part of Europe, has occaſioned much murmuring amongſt the people, and complaints of the multitude of taxes. At length, on Friday laſt the tumult broke out here; the populace aſſembled in great numbers in the market, and carried off or deſtroyed every thing they found there. The ſame thing, we find, has happened at Bruſſels. But, by the prudent meaſures taken by the Government, tranquility is at preſent re-eſtabliſhed. To make the more impreſſion, gibbets have been erected in the market place."

Letters from Genoa bring advice of the death of M. Francois Marie della Rovera, late Doge of that Republic; by whoſe deceaſe that antient and moſt noble family becomes extinct.

April 7. A letter from Hamburgh mentions, that a Prince of the Empire had lately renounced the errors of Popery.

They write from Madrid, of the 8th of laſt month, that the Council of Caſtille, in conjunction with the five Biſhops who came thither by the King's order, have given their opinion concerning the edict lately iſſued by the Duke of Parma, by declaring, that this edict is an act or exerciſe of the competent right of every Sovereign, and is no ways liable to the cenſure of the Court of Rome.

A letter from Glouceſterſhire, dated April 2, ſays, "In this and the neighbouring counties the poor are in great diſtreſs; wheat, in our markets, now ſells for 9s. 6d. per buſhel, and it is thought it will be 14s. ſoon; ſome rich Farmers have, indeed, a great number of wheat ricks ſtanding in their yards; but in general, all over the county, there is but little corn left, having been threſhed out ever ſince Michaelmas laſt. Barley ſells at 4s. and 5s. the buſhel, and our hop-grounds are in a very bad ſituation. Beef and mutton, at Hereford, ſell for 4½d. per pound, and all ſorts of poultry dear in proportion. The poorer ſort of people are obliged to go to the market-towns and purchaſe grains, to mix with other food, for a miſerable ſubſiſtence, and have hardly any clothes to cover their nakedneſs."

On Monday laſt the remains of Mrs. Elwes, relict of Robert Elwes, Eſq; were carried from Chiſwick to be interred in the family vault at Throcking in Hertfortſhire. Her extenſive liberality to the poor, was one of her eminent virtues which particularly deſerves to be remembered and imitated. By her will ſhe has left twelve hundred pounds to the Society for the propagation of the goſpel in foreign parts, two hundred pounds to the ſons of the clergy, two hundred pounds to the Charity-ſchool of Chiſwick, one hundred pounds to the poor of that pariſh, and legacies to the poor of ſeveral pariſhes, in Hertfordſhire.

It is reported, that a certain Captain, now in the North, who has long been inſpired with the enthuſiaſtical ſpirit of Methodiſm, and often preaches to his company, will be deſired to reſign his commiſſion.—This brings to our mind an anecdote of King George the Second: A Colonel in a regiment of foot, at home, wrote a petition to his Majeſty, requeſting to exchange his Colonelſhip for one in a regiment then going to embark for America, concluding, as cuſtomary, with theſe words, And your petitioner, as in duty bound, ſhall ever pray. The King granted his requeſt, and returned his petition to him in perſon, but firſt ſcratched out the word pray, and wrote over it fight.

They write from Paris, that a very curious fowling-piece, of a new invention, and weighing only ſeven pounds, had been preſented, on the 24th paſt, to the King at Choiſy. This piece diſcharges itſelf twenty-four times in two minutes, only by laying hold of the barrel after the firſt ſhot, and then permitting it to make of itſelf a ſemi-circle from left to right, and afterwards from right to left. By this ſimple operation, it reloads and is ready again.

Yeſterday Lord Mansfield had the honour of a conference with his Majeſty at St. James's after the breaking up of the Levee.

Yeſterday the Lord Chancellor went to his ſeat at Camden-Place in Kent.

We are informed, that Mr. Wilkes will ſurrender himſelf, on the 20th inſtant, at Lord Mansfield's Chambers, and not, as was expected, at the Court of King's-Bench.

J. Richards, Corporal,

Sunday laſt died at Bath, Mrs. Sarah Fielding, daughter of the late Gen. Fielding, and ſiſter to Sir John Fielding. This lady's great genius, amiable diſpoſition, and love of virtue, appear conſpicuouſly in her hiſtory of David Simple, her tranſlation of the life of Socrates, and a ſmall treatiſe called the Governeſs; all which do honour to her memory.

They write from Bar ſur Seine, in Champagne, that on the 26th ult. a fire broke out at the village of Virey, near that town, which reduced to aſhes twenty-two houſes and eighteen barns, the latter all full of corn. A child and ſome cattle likewiſe periſhed in the flames.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Leiceſter, dated April 9.

"Our election ended laſt Wedneſday; and to have ſeen ſuch a ſet of wretches, (men, women, and children) for more than a week ſome, and ſome a fortnight, drinking wine, punch, and ale, at pleaſure; eatables alſo in the like plentiful way, together with cockades, &c. muſt have aſtoniſhed even the moſt credulous perſons; money given beſide!—I ſaw one man have fifty guineas for his vote, and he polled againſt that intereſt: however, neither ſide have any pretence to accuſe the other of that kind of corruption.—Had ſome ſenſible perſon had the rule, Mr. —— and Mr. ——, might have come in without oppoſition; whereas is has now coſt all the parties together at leaſt 40,000l.——Would not balloting prevent almoſt all this aggregate of evil? And can there be a grain of honeſty, or a ſpark of the love of liberty, in the compoſition of any man who oppoſes that method of election?—While open elections continue, Freedom will be annihilated."

The following is the favourite Toaſt amongſt all Lovers of Freedom: "May Engliſhmen's Properties be better ſecured from Scotch Incroachments."
